

THE COLLEGE TRANSITION:

Your purpose, your faith, and your community

March 20, 2011: 2pm-5pm

The State Museum of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg

Pre-registration: $10 student/$20 max family • All seats at door (if available): $15 per person

This seminar is designed for college-bound high school students (10th-12th) and their parents and will address the transition from high school to college. This multimedia seminar is engaging, interactive, and challenges teenagers and parents to think deeply about the most crucial questions to ask before entering college. Designed to focus on the unique pressures and influences students face in higher education, this seminar and related support materials will help students and parents better understand and prepare to face these pressures and challenges from a distinctively Christian perspective. Youth leaders and Christian School teachers are also highly encouraged to attend.

Derek Melleby is the Director of the College Transition Initiative, a ministry of the Center for Parent/Youth Understanding and the Coalition for Christian Outreach. He is the author of Make College Count: A Faithful Guide to Life and Learning (forthcoming, March 2011) and co-author of The Outrageous Idea of Academic Faithfulness. His seminars have been presented across the country to students, parents, educators and pastors.

"This seminar raises the bar on the college preparation process. You will hear some things that you won't hear anywhere else. It's a different kind of college preparation. My daughter (HS senior) said it was the 'best' large group presentation she has seen...most relevant."

—Pam Stroup, Director of Parent Ministries, McLean Bible Church, McLean, VA

"You gave me a fresh perspective on how to communicate and motivate youth during this transition. Your presentation was extremely substantial and I could not stop taking notes the entire time. I was impressed with the depth and frankness you shared with the students. I have been in Christian education for 12 years now and I found your organization, examples, and outline to be richly transformative."

—Daniel Townsley, Guidance Counselor, Legacy Christian Academy, Dallas, TX
